INFORMATION ON BUFFALO EXPORT CHARGE

WHY IS THERE A BUFFALO EXPORT CHARGE?

The buffalo export charge provides funding for research and development programs carried out by the Rural Industries Research and Development Corporation (RIRDC). The Levies Revenue Service (LRS) collects these funds and forwards them to RIRDC, in addition to distributing the Australian Government's matching research and development (R&D) contributions. Levies and export charges are introduced and administered by the Australian Government at the request of Industry.

WHAT IS THE EXPORT CHARGE PAYABLE ON?

Export charge is payable on live buffalo produced in Australia and exported from Australia.

WHO PAYS THE EXPORT CHARGE AND WHO SUBMITS RETURNS?

The producer (the person who owned the buffalo immediately before the export from Australia) is liable to pay the levy. This person must forward export charge to the LRS along with return forms that are available from all LRS offices or by accessing the LRS website at www.daff.gov.au/levies.

If the buffalo is exported through an exporting agent, the agent is liable to pay the charge on behalf of the producer and submit it along with return forms to LRS. The exporting agent can recover the amount of charge paid from the producer, by offset or otherwise.
