The following information is required:

- Copies of relevant state licences such as Commercial Wildlife Harvesting Licence (CWHL) and Commercial Wildlife Licence (CWL)*
- Copies of documented evidence of the proposed use of the sandalwood – such evidence would be copies of orders.

* If you are claiming the exemption which does not require a CHWL or CWL being submitted you MUST supply documentation that any exemptions to the Queensland Nature Conservation Act 1992 are applicable. You are required to provide copies of documented evidence of the source of the sandalwood and clear identification of the physical location from which it was harvested – this could include purchase papers, receipts, or certificates from vendors of sandalwood logs. You must supply the department with documentation that the Sandalwood end manufactured product will be artefacts. This documentation can be orders, receipts, advice from the buyers or a statutory declaration that clearly states that the wood will be used to manufacture artefacts.
